new in town

We all go through it — you’ve been eating at the same three places over and over. No knock against customer loyalty but there’s a chance you’re in a rut. Lucky for you, new restaurants have popped up all over the county in the last year to help you branch out. →

ZACH LATHOURIS

True, we said goodbye to a fair number of eateries. McKinleyville residents out for a quick burger and sundae find themselves without both Burger Central and North Coast Frozen Yogurt. Bergeron Winery lives on but its Trinidad tasting room is no more, and the same goes for the wine-centric Madam M's Crush in Arcata. You can still get a Natty Burger in the market, just not at the Simmer Down food truck, which shut down around the same time Masaki's Mongolian Grill closed. Adriana's Mexican and American restaurant is also gone like that first basket of chips. Eureka institutions Mazzotti's and Bless My Soul Café darkened their dining rooms, though the former is still in business on the Arcata Plaza and the latter is catering. Rose's Billiards and the Wine Spot packed up their glasses, and Dulce Bistro came and went before many had a chance to try it. Ferndale's Farmhouse on Main closed, too, along with Fortuna's Timeout Sports Pub and Miguel's in Scotia.

If some of those closures sting, let the pain spur you to eat at the restaurants, bars and trucks you love when you can. Now let's find you some new favorites, shall we?

Starting at the top of the county, the ilwai kiliwh grocery store opened to the relief of folks in Hoopa who'd gone without one for years. In McKinleyville, the Bigfoot Taproom (1750 Central Ave.), like its shadowy namesake, can't be seen yet but is in the works and set to open this year.

In Arcata, Fregosos Comida Mexicana (1504 G St.) offers homemade horchata and chile relleno in a volcanic molcajete. On the same street, Folie Douce (1551 G St.) has transformed under new ownership, maintaining some old standards but adding North African and Lebanese dishes, like tajines and kofta. Farther down, Wolf Dawg Eatery (1731 G St.) made the jump from Eureka, though this is not its final form — the name is changing to The Chopper as its menu shifts toward healthier fare. On the plaza, the much mourned Abruzzi's is reborn as The Basement (780 Seventh St.), a jazz lounge with a full bar and charcuterie. And keep an eye out for The Pub and its army of taps and wood-fire pizzas opening in the Creamery Building.

In Eureka, lunch picked up with the opening of upscale sandwich and bakery spot Delish on 5th (440 F St.) and Bandit Savory and Sweet (525 Second St.), with its own fancy sandwiches, soups and scones in the lobby of the Vance Hotel Building. The Wine Cellar (407 Second St.) continues to slowly uncork with retail sales and tasting. As promised, the Madrone Brick Fire Pizza and Tap House (421 Third St.), the Eureka outpost of Redwood Curtain Brewing Co. and its attending Loco Fish Co. truck (1595 Myrtle Ave.) opened to slake the thirst for craft beer and something tasty to soak it up. Another truck, Taco Brothers (1415 Fifth St.), found its spot and following for its hefty burritos. And Kenny's Chocolates (425 Snug Alley) is now turning out truffles in the former Humboldt Chocolate space behind the Old Town gazebo.

Fortuna's meat enthusiasts find themselves flush with Smokin' Barrels (1095 S. Fortuna Blvd.) and its menu of burgers and barbecue converging for the tri-tip beef and smoked pulled pork-topped Husky Burger, as well as the burgers and brisket nachos from the bright red Humboldt Fresh truck (2059 Main St., Fortuna; 306 F St., Eureka). And that's all before the Springville Meat Co. (3640 Pryor Court) adds sandwiches to its roster of smoked meats and sides. CakennBaconn (1044 Main St.) returns anew in the Friendly City with hot and cold sandwiches, custom cakes and classic treats like lemon bars and brownies.

More sweets and sandwiches abound in Ferndale, where Lost Coast Baking Company (543 Main St.) is filling the case with tall carrot cakes and Dutch chocolate crinkle cookies. There's also Erlei's Bakin It (444 Main St.) on the rise with loaves of fresh bread and all manner of scones and sweets. Just an apple's throw away, Main Squeeze Juice Bar (580 Main St.) will sell you a wrap, a fresh fruit smoothie or a pitaya fruit bowl served in a pineapple half. And in Loleta, the new Bear River Family Entertainment Center (263 Keisner Road) is dishing out burgers, wings and pizza.

Finally, down in Miranda, locals are giving a royal welcome to the charcuterie, oysters, wine and brews at the Redwood Palace (6735 Avenue of the Giants).

Listen, we can't eat all this ourselves. Well, actually we can but we still want to hear from you. Let us know what's good by emailing jennifer@northcoastjournal.com, via Twitter @JFumikoCahill or Instagram @northcoastjournal. ♡

Morsels by Month

A Year-in-the-Life of Humboldt's
Gastronomic Goodness

BY JOSEPHINE JOHNSON

For the glory of good eats, loosen that belt a notch (or three), gourmets, gourmands and gastronomes, and mark your calendars. Here's a list of Humboldt's best eatin' events to keep you salivating all year long.

MARK MCKENNA

January

Big Chili Cook-off:

In January, Big Brothers and Big Sisters of the North Coast hosts its annual Big Chili Cook-off at the Mad River Tasting Room in Blue Lake. Chow down on chili and cornbread, and enjoy live music. A rootin' tootin' good time, all for the sake of local kids.

February & March

After all that chili, beans and rice, a digestive rest is in order. Well, maybe just a little local Valentine's chocolate.

Bowl of Beans celebrates Martin Luther King, Jr. Day at the Arcata Community Center. Begun in 2000, this evening of rice, beans, cornbread and salad is a vibrant community tradition complete with local music and youth performances. Proceeds support Arcata youth art programs and scholarships.

SAM ARMANINO

April

Spamley Cup: Ah, Spam, that guilty, salty-fatty porky-ham pleasure, especially necessary after a late night at the Shanty. At the Spamley Cup, local chefs and armchair connoisseurs compete and craft this specially processed American meat into gourmet entrees. Entrants are judged on presentation, creativity and taste. Great local music and kids' activities. And it benefits CASA of Humboldt. Spamtastic!

June

Trinidad Fish Festival: Father's Day. An all-day party in the "drinking town with a fishing problem," featuring live music, vendors and a big ol' fish feed in the sunshine.

Best of Humboldt Fair:

June 20 through 23, Redwood Acres hosts local food products, tastings, funnel cakes and the best fried fair food. It's a great place to catch the best of what's being produced in Humboldt.

May

Taste of Main Street: On the cusp of the Redwood Coast Music Festival, dozens of Old Town eateries and bars are on the menu as you stroll around grazing on samples. Don't dawdle and come hungry. Tickets are $25. Afterward, work it off at the Redwood Coast Music Festival's kick-off swing dance.

Pony Express Days: It's another round of chili, a good option for those sometimes cold, overcast days. Pony Express Days in McKinleyville hosts an entire week of family fun including this chili cook-off at the McKinleyville Recreation Center. Sample every chili and a vote for the champion.

Arcata Bay Oyster Festival: With more than 12,000 attendees each year, the bivalve bacchanalia on the Arcata Plaza is one of Humboldt's signature summer events. Always on the Saturday before Father's Day. The event is sponsored by Arcata Main Street and proudly showcases the aquaculture of our very own Humboldt Bay with live music, shucking contests, an army of vendors and chefs competing for best oyster.

DREW HYLAND

July

Fourth of July: Get ready for fireworks and a food festi-palooza in Humboldt — Arcata, Eureka, Benbow and Ferndale all boast day-long celebrations with tons of local food vendors, music, games and family-friendly activities. Can't wait? Fortuna parties on July 3.

Fortuna Rodeo: July 14-21. Saddle up for the Fortuna Rodeo's signature chili cook-off kick-off and annual pit barbecue for lunch — 4,000 pounds of beef, 80 gallons of potato salad, 1,800 bread rolls and 100 gallons of baked beans make this one delicious way to wrap up the famous Fortuna Rodeo.

Blackberry Festival:

July 28, head to Westhaven for the annual Blackberry Festival at the Westhaven Firehall — blackberry and huckleberry pie are the local faves, but you can also buy barbecue, hamburgers, beer and wine. Local music, too. Proceeds go to the Westhaven Volunteer Fire Department.

August

Humboldt County Fair runs August 15-25 and, sure, you can check out prize-winning livestock, enjoy the thrill of the midway or try your luck at the horsetrack. But really, you'll want to load up on all your favorites that only come around once a year — funnel cakes, shaved ice, corn dogs, cotton candy, caramel corn and all things deep fried and delicious.

Yurok Salmon Festival: Aug. 17 marks the 57th year of this family-friendly fest. Held at the Klamath Community Center, the celebration includes cultural demonstrations, a 5K run and more. The lunch includes fresh Klamath salmon if they have it.

Hops in Humboldt: On Aug. 24, get ready to get your beer and grub on at Humboldt's biggest beer fest in Rohner Park, Fortuna. Pizza, pretzels, Indian tacos, tri-tip, fries, kabobs, Mexican and more compete for room in your belly with beers from more than 50 breweries.

September

North Country Fair: Held Sept. 21 and 22 on the Arcata Plaza, this two-day romp in the sunshine has been a jewel of local culture since 1974. The fair features the best of local and regional arts, crafts, music and food — pizza, beer, oysters, barbecue, veggie delights, sweet treats and much more.

Fieldbrook Art & Wine Festival

The last Saturday in September at the Fieldbrook Winery, enjoy barbecued oysters, albacore, chicken, local wine, beer, live music and artisan booths. Admission is free but proceeds benefit Fieldbrook Educational Foundation and Fieldbrook School.

October

Apple Harvest Festival: The first weekend in October, Fortuna halts traffic downtown for an old-fashioned street fair. Bushels of apples — on sticks, with caramel, in pies, baked and deep-fried. There's even more food, barbecue and family activities in Rohner Park.

Hoptoberfest: Held mid-October in Perigot Park in sunny Blue Lake, this one celebrates regional breweries, area food vendors and local talent. Proceeds benefit Blue Lake Education Foundation.

Oktoberfest: It's a traditional German-style dinner at Rohner Park in Fortuna. German and local beer, beer barrel and stein races, polka dancing and "oompah" music to top off the bratwurst. Free entry, but bring money for German food and beer. Benefits Fortuna Senior Center.

November

Intertribal Gathering and Elders Dinner:

The Redwood Acres Fairground welcomes all and celebrates elders the second Saturday in November. The event gives a glimpse into local Native cultures with traditional dance, art and music. Elders are served a free traditional salmon dinner at noon. Admission is free, dinner is $8 adults, $4 kids 12 and under, and free to those 55 and over.

Mushroom Fair:

The annual fun since 1978 is always on the Sunday before Thanksgiving at Redwood Acres Fairgrounds. Learn about all things fungi-rrific, get mushroom cookbooks and recipes, and bring in your found fungi for accurate identification.

December

Ferndale Tree Lighting and Linguiça and Beans Dinner:

On the first Saturday in December, join residents of the Victorian Village in their annual tree lighting ceremony — it's the tallest living lighted Christmas tree in America and a Ferndale tradition since 1934. Afterward head over to the Portuguese Hall for a traditional meal of linguiça and beans. A heartwarming, friendly, delicious evening with — what else — cookies for dessert. ❖
